Office Order

It has been decided by the competent authority to implement several activities through 'Samarth' platform, for which Dr. J.P Mathuria (Dean Faculty of Paramedical Sciences) has been nominated as Nodal officer for Samarth portal.

It is therefore directed that Samarth platform shall be implemented for all the activities related to examinations forthwith. This includes, but is not limited to, examination scheduling, student registration, admit card generation, result processing, and any other examination-related task.

The Nodal Officer shall be responsible for providing necessary training, technical assistance and support to all personnel involved in examination process. The Nodal Officer shall organize training session for all members of examination to familiarize them with the features & functionalities of the Samarth platform.

All staff members of examination section are directed to co-operate fully with the nodal officer and participate in the training sessions to facilitate full seamless adoption of new system. The progress of implementation will be reviewed periodically and should be reported to the under signed. This order must be complied by all concerned officers and staffs with immediate effect.
